ALLIED INDUSTRY MEMBERSHIP:

C. Allied Industry Membership

(1) Allied Industry Membership may, upon written application and Executive Committee approval, be extended to non-veterinarian representatives of allied industries, subject to the qualifications outlined in subsection (2) below. Allied industry members shall be non-voting members of TVMA, ineligible to hold office in TVMA and shall pay dues each year equal in value to the annual dues for Active Members.

(2) Qualifications: Allied Industry members shall agree to comply with the purpose and objectives as states in Article II and with the bylaws and ethical principles as stated in Article III, Section 1c.

(3) Industrial Advisory Committee (IAC). There is hereby established an Industrial Advisory Committee whose purpose is to establish and maintain formal lines of communication between TVMA and companies operating within the veterinary industry who wish to assist TVMA in achieving its stated purposes and mission within the State of Texas. The IAC shall be subject to the following guidelines: (a) members of the IAC must be Allied Industry members of TVMA in good standing who commit to attending at least two meetings annually in conjunction with TVMA business meetings.
